

Map of Learning Center

Easy Books are picture books that range in reading ability from pre-kindergarten to fifth grade. These books have an EAZ in the call number.

Nonfiction books range in all reading ranges and contain factual material. They have the Dewey Decimal number in the call number.

Fiction books are made-up stories and have an FIC in the call number. They range in ability level from second grade upward.

Biography books are books about people who actual lived. These books range in ability level from second grade upward. They have a BIO in the call number.