

Mrs. Shepard and Mrs. Carey's 4th Grade

The 4th grade students have learned about how fossils are formed.

They learned the difference between a cast and a mold. Then they made their own mold by imprinting a shell into clay.

Then we poured plaster of paris into their molds to make a cast or fossil of their shell. The next day they peeled the clay molds off to reveal their fossil.