

Brad's Collision Service
Industrial Arts Scholarship
Mission Statement

The Brad's Collision Service Industrial Arts Scholarship is dedicated to helping students at Mercer County High School who are planning on a career in an industrial arts field.

Our goal is to help deserving individuals within our community achieve their career goals, an objective which has the added benefit of bettering the community at large.

In short, our goal is to help students, notwithstanding academics, who plan to further their education through an apprenticeship or trade school.
